(S) NATIONAL RECONNAISSANCE OFFICE

WASHINGTON, D.C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

21 July 1977

Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

In response to your request at the conclusion of yesterday's Policy Review Committee (Intelligence) meeting, I would like to ask for an appointment with you to discuss in more detail the issues raised at the meeting. I agree that it is vital for us to explain the requirements for, and the associated values of, the various space-based collection systems that we are proposing. In that a number of decisions have now been deferred until the fall review, I believe it wise to start these discussions as soon as your time permits.

With your permission, I would also like to ask each of the other members of the Committee for a similar meeting.

My secretary will call your office in two days to see whether such a meeting can be arranged in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

Hans Mark
